

Look to Christ

for Farmington Avenue Baptist Church as we look to Jesus in 2022

Josh Sparkman

1. Look to Christ and bow in awe; He, the sov'-reign Lord of all,
2. Broth-er, sis - ter, sink-ing low, have no fear; be still and know
3. When the dark-ness presses in, ev-'ry star and light grows dim, the Mas - ter of the storm, our Hope in dark - est place,

that ev - 'ry wave you feel sub - mits to His re - buke, through tri - als of the night, O Church, we car - ry on, the Light of life and com-ing King— all glo-ry to His name!

and through the howl-ing tempest, look! The Lord can-not be moved.
for Christ will come, and joy will wake; the Son will bring the dawn!

We will sing when storms are rag - ing; we will not be shak - en!

Waves will roar and tor rents rise; we will look to Je - sus Christ.

The musical score is written for a choir or soloist with piano accompaniment. It features a key signature of one flat (Bb) and a time signature of 6/8. The melody is primarily in the soprano and alto parts, with the piano providing harmonic support through chords and bass lines. The lyrics are arranged in three systems, each corresponding to a system of music. The first system includes three numbered verses. The second and third systems each have two lines of lyrics. The fourth system has one line of lyrics. The fifth system has one line of lyrics. The sixth system has one line of lyrics. The score concludes with a final chord in the piano part.